

Criteria for Re-Lending & List of Intermediaries

Intermediary Relending Program (IRP)

Population: Loans to be made only in cities having a population of less than 25,000.

Eligible Entity: Intermediaries may make loans to private individuals, public or private organizations, or any other legal entity (ultimate recipient).

Loan Purpose: Must be for the establishment of new business, the expansion of existing businesses, creation of employment opportunities, saving of existing jobs, or community development projects.

Amount: Loans made by an Intermediary to an ultimate recipient may finance no more than 75% of the total cost of the project. The total amount of RBS/Intermediary loan funds requested by the ultimate recipient plus the total outstanding balance of any existing loans from IRP funds will typically not exceed $150,000.

Terms: Security requirements, interest rates and loan terms established by Intermediaries to ultimate recipients shall be negotiated by those parties.

Other Credit: Ultimate recipients must certify and document that they are unable to finance the proposed project from their own resources or through commercial credit or other Federal, State, or local programs at reasonable rates and terms.

* Describes general program requirements. Individual Intermediaries may have established program requirements that are more specific.
